THE NEW JUSTICE

Governor Tomlin's appointment of Judge Mrs. Adams as the seventh justice of the Florida Supreme Court, adds to the number of the judicial branch of the state.

Judge Adams and Judge Edwin Thomas are both able men each with a wide range of experience in the legal profession and the nature of residence in the state. Judge Adams will be the youngest member of the court, and one of the youngest men ever to have taken the oath of the supreme bench in this state.

At 41 he is a well educated man, successful in his profession, as well as having been active in business and public affairs. A native of Walton County, he obtained his law degree at the University of Florida, and practiced at Pensacola for three years before going to Fort Pierce in 1914. He served as vice-chairman of the State Bar Association, and was appointed to the Florida Bar for twenty-two years, held the presidency of the State Bar Association in 1937, and was a Past President of the Florida Bar Association in 1937. He also is prominent in University of Florida alumni activities.

When Judge Thomas resigned as justice of the North District of Florida in 1938, Judge Adams was appointed to succeed him. He has been active in the judicial branch of the state. In addition to his judicial duties, he has been active in the legal profession and the nature of residence in the state.
